Ocean Cruising Seminar

The logical next step to furthering your knowledge and increasing your confidence for a planned ocean passage.

The three day Atlantic Circuit Seminar will take place from 1330 on Friday 11th March to 1600 on Sunday 13th March 2011. It covers in depth, a variety of subjects associated with the planning and preparation required for ocean cruising. Lecturers have been chosen for their wealth of knowledge in their specialist fields. Special emphasis will be on the ARC & World ARC and what to expect in terms of weather and equipment issues. A number of the lecturers have sailed in the ARC and will draw on their experience from their participation in the event. Amongst the subjects to covered are:

- Communications equipment update, including DSC/GMDSS and Sat Coms
- SSB Installation and usage
- Rigging preparation and maintenance; sail choice
- Onboard safety equipment; choosing and using
- Power management and generation
- Choosing and running a Watermaker
- Wind self-steering systems explained
- First aid at sea; techniques and medical supplies
- Spares and maintenance on board
- Provisioning for offshore cruising
- Weather forecasts – sources & interpretation
- Heavy weather sailing techniques
- Choosing the right insurance

"I found the whole event to be excellent. It was well organised, had generally very good content, answered some questions and posed others and gave a great opportunity to meet people in the 'same boat' " - David Harding, Yacht Irie.

"A large amount of information presented by highly experience lecturers during a very enjoyable weekend." Andrew Butler

- As well as the opportunity to ask questions at the end of each lecture, there will be a question and answer forum discussion with a panel of lecturers each day. It is hoped that in this way topics not covered by the lecturers can be brought up and discussed.
- The Holiday Inn in Guildford will be the venue for the seminar. Situated on the A3 the Hotel is easily found. For those arriving by train the main station is close by and well served by buses and taxis.
- One of the additional benefits of the seminar is to meet fellow delegates, many of whom have similar sailing ambitions and plans. There will be a three course dinner on the Saturday evening for delegates to meet one another.

Seminar Fee - £395 per person, or £375 for confirmed ARC and World ARC participants
The fee for the seminar includes: meals and refreshments; accommodation at the Holiday Inn based on 2 people sharing inclusive of full breakfast buffet (single room supplement £40); Friday night dinner and the Seminar dinner on Saturday night. A Guest rate is offered for those wishing to attend the dinner on Saturday, but not the seminar of £90.00 (room and dinner only).
